

OUR LADY
QUEEN OF ANGELS
CATHOLIC SCHOOL

January 11, 2012

Dear Parents,

Early this morning the Parent Auxiliary Board had their January meeting where they discussed plans for the upcoming weeks and months. The topics ranged from the January enrichment presentation by the Imagination Machine where talented professional actors will present short plays from written work created by our own students to the day by day plans for Catholic School Week celebrations. Looking ahead St Patrick's Day festivities are being planned and a new Angel Notes will soon be published. So many details these mothers handle with grace and skill to help make Our Lady Queen of Angels the school we know and love. On behalf of the entire school community, I want to thank these talented women for sharing their time, talent, and treasures with the OLQA Community.

They concluded their meeting with a prayer that I think really defines who they are and what they are all about.

*Dear Jesus, please plant deeply in our hearts a dose of faith, hope, and love so we may be able to pass it on to all those who are encircled in our care.
Deepen our desire to give. Amen*

PLEASE PRAY

Carter Quinn, husband of Mrs. Laura Quinn, who is battling cancer

Jazmine Simon, a student, who has an emergency appendectomy
