October 6, 2010

Dear Parents,

October is in full swing here at Our Lady Queen of Angels School. Next week we will have Parent Teacher Conferences on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday. These three days will be minimum days with noon dismissal. All parents should have received in their Family Envelope a specific date and time to meet with your child's teacher. Please remember that these conferences are scheduled for fifteen minutes and the teacher must end a conference on time to meet their next scheduled appointment. Thank you for consideration in this matter which will help make our Parent Teacher Conference days a success. If you did not receive a conference time, please contact Mrs. Cunningham at our front office and she will be glad to schedule your appointment. Mrs. Cunningham can be reached at 949 644 1166 or dcunningham@olqa.org for your convenience.

As I mentioned last week, October is the month dedicated to Mary and the rosary. In our classrooms we are saying decades of the rosary to experience prayer as a group, the comfort of saying Hail Marys together, and the power of prayer. At Our Lady Queen of Angels School, we are blessed to spend time in prayer and lift ourselves up. We pray for our school and our families. We are praying for you!

Please read carefully all the information about Halloween at OLQA in today's Family Envelope.

PLEASE PRAY FOR

Marion Deeb, grandmother of Elias Deeb, who passed away recently. A service will be held at Pacific View tomorrow, Thursday, at 12:30 pm. May she rest in peace.

Gregory Haag, grandfather of Aidan and Rylie Gaughan, passed away recently. May he rest in peace.

Miguel Soria, our custodian, who is sick.

Rick Ready, a teacher, who is receiving chemotherapy

CARPOOL HIGHLIGHTS – RAINY DAYS PICK UP PROCEDURES

If it is raining at dismissal, an email will be sent alerting everyone that all students need to be picked up from the classrooms. Students who are normally picked up at the school parking lot will need to be picked up at 2:15 P.M. However, if you have a student in the Junior High you must wait until 2:30 P.M. for pickup.

Students who are picked up at the new church site need to be picked up at 2:30 P.M. from their classrooms and park in the school parking lot. The fifteen minute difference in time should allow easy access for parents to quickly pick up their students from the classroom, safely return to their car, and carefully leave the parking lot.
